Russia to Free 5,000 German War Prisoners

By JOSEPH H. SINGER
BERLIN (INS) — East German Communist officials announced today that 5,000 former German war prisoners will be released before the end of this month from Russian camps under sweeping Moscow economic and political concessions.

The officials told a news conference that the prisoners have been serving up to 12 year sentences for various crimes, and those returned will be quarantined at a camp at Frankfurt-on-Oder before final release.

Western diplomats were studying their own approach to the problem of a German peace treaty following Moscow's announcement yesterday of a Russian-East German agreement.

An East German cabinet informant told International News Service that Russia will retain ownership and control of the giant Wismut corporation which handles the East German uranium industry.

The Wismut corporation employs 250,000 workers, which is ten percent of the East German industry mining labor force.

The informant said that the Soviet government's interior ministry will continue to operate Wismut directly despite the return of 33 other Soviet-owned plants to East Germany.

This source also said that the East German parliament will be held tomorrow of a reorganization of the government.

The plan is to reduce drastically the size of the Soviet occupation zone government. In addition to the offices of President Wilhelm Pieck and Premier Otto Grotewohl there now are 18 ministries, ten state secretaries, four commissions and five coordinating committees.

The informant said that since the anti-Communist June uprising it has been found that his bulky machinery is incapable of efficient work.

An East German delegation headed by Premier Otto Grotewohl returned to Berlin from Moscow yesterday declaring that Russia was "a true friend" of Germany and carrying copies of an agreement between East Germany and the Soviet Union.

Under the terms of the agreement, Russia will release East Germany from war reparations after Jan. 1 and from many other debts, restore 33 industrial plants already seized as reparations, release many German prisoners and exchange ambassadors with East Germany.

Asks Russia to Produce Prisoners

GENEVA, Switzerland (UP) — James C. Dunn, U. S. representative on the United Nations special commission on prisoners of war, called on Soviet Russia today to account for millions of still missing World War II POW's.

Dunn, who is U. S. ambassador to Spain, was here for the commission's fourth session, which opened today.

He said Soviet cooperation would "lift the burden from thousands of homes."

In a statement Dunn noted that the U. N. general assembly had instructed the commission to settle the war prisoner issue in a purely humanitarian spirit and on terms acceptable to all nations concerned.

Dunn said the Soviet Union is the only country which has failed to account for a large number of war prisoners.

The special U. N. commission was created in 1950. From information submitted to previous sessions, it is alleged that 63,000 Italian, 300,000 Japanese, and in early 2,000,000 German war prisoners still are unaccounted for by the USSR.

Accidents Cause Heavy Damage to Four Vehicles

Two automobile accidents here over the weekend resulted in considerable damage, investigating City Police said.

Saturday on S. Elm a parked auto owned by Vernis Boswell was heavily damaged when a State Police car being towed, broke loose from the wrecker and struck into the Boswell vehicle. The State Police car was damaged in an accident earlier near Magnolia.

Also Saturday a car driven by R. T. Rider crashed into the back of another driven by Thomas H. Hardin of Prescott. The Prescott auto had stopped at a signal on South Main and was heavily damaged. City Police said.

Protection Tariff Must End, Ike Says

By ROBERT E. CLARK

DENVER (INS) — President Eisenhower today made public a report declaring the United States must end its protectionist tariff policies or endanger the entire free world.

The blunt warning was sounded by Lewis W. Douglas, who made a study for Mr. Eisenhower of the economic and financial problems involved in this country's relations with Great Britain.

Douglas said removal of American restrictions on free trade is essential and paving the way for a return to full convertibility of sterling, a step which he strongly recommended, also is necessary.

Mr. Eisenhower praised the former ambassador to Britain for his work on the report and commended it to the "earnest attention" of the commission set up to review the entire field of foreign economic policies.

Major revisions of the nation's tariff policies will await the report of the commission which is scheduled to start work shortly.

Douglas cited U. S. protective tariffs as one of the major causes of the "unbalance" between sterling and the dollar caused mainly by our sale abroad of more goods than we buy from the British-dominated sterling area.

There Is No Way to Estimate Just How Many Lives the Deed of One Man Saved in Korea

By RELMAN MORIN

For Hal Boyle
NEW YORK (AP) — There was a story in the papers the other day that set me thinking about that painfully familiar word, "minorities."

An American sergeant, freed in Korea, was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. This is America's highest military decoration, and as you might expect, the citation reads: "His indomitable heroism and consummate devotion to duty reflect the utmost glory on himself and uphold the highest traditions of the military service."

The sergeant's name is Hiroshi Miyamura.

Nobody will ever know how many guys named Smith, Jones, Brown, McLeod and O'Rourke are alive today because he stayed behind, alone, blasting with a machinegun.

Nor can we ever estimate how

Shah Is Seeking Money From Any Nation

By JOSEPH MAZANDI

TEHRAN, Iran (UP) — Ousted premier Mohammed Mossadeq was spirited away to an undisclosed jail today while Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi sought desperately to get money "from any country that is willing to give it."

Premier Ferozollah Zohedi, leader of the Royalist coup that overthrew Mossadeq, announced that he had been taken from his detention quarters.

Zohedi refused to say just where Mossadeq is being held. Fervid followers of the shah might try to lynch him, Zohedi explained.

The young shah said at a press conference at his suburban palace yesterday that Iran must have money at once.

Apparently including Soviet Russia as well as the United States as a source of aid, the shah said: "We are willing to accept help from any country which is willing to give it. Not a loan, but direct aid is needed. But it must be made clear that we are not beggars and are unwilling to grant any concessions. We will have to struggle in our very difficult situation."

The shah spoke bitterly of Mossadeq.

"He would have been torn to pieces had he been caught" (by a mob), the shah said. "It must be made clear that the revolution was against him."

"He will go on trial charged firstly with misdeeds carried out while he was premier and secondly with crimes committed after his dismissal," the shah said. "This second instance, is treason."

The shah's appointment of Zohedi as premier led to a coup by Mossadeq and the flight of the 33-year-old ruler to Rome by way of Baghdad last week.

But the Iranian people staged a bloody revolt, led by Zohedi, and overthrew Mossadeq's Nationalist government and sent the terrified premier fleeing in his pink pajamas.

Mossadeq was apprehended when he was tricked into giving away his hiding place.

Son Born to Chas. Chaplins

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (UP) — Movie Comedian Charles Chaplin said he would choose a name to day for his newest child — an eight pound boy.

Mrs. Chaplin, the former Oona O'Neill, gave birth to the child, her fifth, last night shortly after she arrived at Montchoisi Clinic.

much this country owes the 442nd Regimental Combat Team — although the army tried by hanging more combat medals, per man, on that outfit than any other in the last war. It was composed exclusively of American-born Japanese.

That's the good side of the picture. But there is another.

How many potential Medal of Honor winners, how many artists and scientists, how many plain good citizens, have been lost to America because the concept of minorities still persists? What does it cost us, every day, to set people apart by reason of race or color?

Here is one case:
During the last war, this writer was a prisoner of the Japanese for about a year. There was an investigation on charges of espionage. The interpreter was a bright young fellow who spoke perfect English. One day, he took a ferro-

Wire Cutting Crops Up in 'Phone Strike

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Wire cutting was reported in Missouri and Kansas today as contract negotiations were resumed in an effort to end a strike by 53,000 CIO employees against the six-state Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

The wire tampering was reported by the utility in the Kansas City, Mo., and Hutchinson, Kan., areas. Officials of the CIO Communications Workers denied knowledge of the incidents.

A bargaining session, first since the strike began last Thursday, started shortly after 10 a. m. An official of the Federal Conciliation Service, which called the meeting, said:

"If they show signs of changes in their attitudes which indicate there may be a settlement, we'll stay with them right on through the day and night. But if they're adamant, the meeting won't last very long."

Teletype and long distance telephone service was disrupted when a 708 circuit underground cable was hacked in two early today near Blue Springs, in the Kansas City area.

The company said someone climbed into a maintenance man hole to sever the cable, one of several cast-iron west cables. Repair crews were expected to restore all of the circuits today.

A company official reported two circuits were knocked out near Hutchinson last Friday when someone "climbed a pole and placed a wire from one circuit to another, knocking out both." He added that barbed wire was thrown across toll circuits at another place near Hutchinson.

"I don't know anything about it," said Frank P. Loneragan, vice president of the union's District 6. "I doubt that union people had anything to do with it."

Prior to the contract talks today, a company representative said the utility's negotiators would "do everything in their power to settle the strike."

The company reported that service remained near normal through out its six-state territory.

Shortly before the strike began the union rejected a company offer of wage increases ranging from $1 to $3 weekly. The old pay scale ranged from $35 to $95 a week.

Race Book Operated in Mental Home

CHICAGO (AP) — The bizarre story of a horserace betting hand-book operated in a mental institution by a physician and an inmate of several years, and the inmate's woman friend was told today by Chief Patrick C. Tuohy of the sheriff's police and Dr. Otto Bettag, state welfare director.

Dr. Bettag said the suicide of a nurse in the Chicago State Hospital Aug. 7 after she had lost heavily on bets placed with the bookie gave authorities their first tangible lead, although he said betting operations were believed to have extended over several years.

Tuohy said Mrs. Dorothy Hughes, 31, told of picking up bets of $3 a day when she called daily on Martin Wanzig, 42, who was last committed to the hospital in September 1952. Tuohy quoted her that she telephoned the bets to an outside bookie and carried winnings to Wanzig.

When arrested, she had $85 in her possession.

Authorities said Mrs. Hughes told them the betting operations were started by a staff physician, who later enlisted Wanzig because, he said, "The operation is too big for me to handle alone."

Mrs. Hughes said she drew a commission on the bets she relayed.

By ROBERT W. WELLS
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — More than 300 American fighting men today scattered over the United States, en route home from grim Red prison camps and the emotion-packed arrival of the first shipload of repatriated POWs from Korea.

The Navy transport Gen. Nelson M. Walker—first vessel on the freedom run from Inchon, Korea—glided through the Golden Gate yesterday with 238 former captives as a tug broke up overhead and Army and Marine bands broke into "California, Here I Come."

As the ship nosed into her pier at Ft. Mason, a roar rose from 2,400 Marine, Army and Air Force men also aboard.

Phrebois shouted streams of water and a high sign emblazoned: "Welcome home." On the pier a third band joined the chorus and a pretty soprano sang "My Hero."

But on the promenade deck of the Walker—and on the dock below, among the families of more than 60 of the freed captives—it was much quieter.

There were scattered shouts as men who once wondered if they would ever see their loved ones again spotted a wife or child. But more often there were tightly clenched jaws and tears in the eyes which had stared too long at barbed wire and bleak North Korean stockades.

The green hills across San Francisco Bay to the north, the slight gleaming tall buildings as the fog rolled back and even grey Alcatraz out in the bay — was a sight that seemed to bring lumps to everyone's throat.

They were among the 150 released Saturday night at Freedom Village in "Operation Big Switch." No Arkansas were in the group released last night.

Extends Time on Highway Projects

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — The Arkansas Highway Commission will grant extensions of time on road construction projects for three projects at its meeting here tomorrow.

The extensions were requested by county judges and other officials interested in Highway 71 between Fayetteville and Rogers, the proposed new Hot Springs-Benton road, and a new highway that would connect Vilonia in Faulkner county with Highway 5 in Pulaski county.

The commission originally offered to build the roads if free rights-of-way were provided within 60 days. The time limit has expired, and the extensions have been requested.

Highway Director Herbert Eldridge said he would recommend a 60-day extension for all three projects.

The extension for the Hot Springs-Benton road was requested by Saline county Judge Charles Smithers.

Nothing Revealed in Russian Air Show

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW, (UP) — The Soviet Union flexed its aerial muscles over Moscow Sunday but there was no sign of new jet planes, including longrange bombers, that Russia is said to possess.

The annual mass-demonstration of Soviet airpower was held at Tushino airport before Premier Georgi M. Malenkov and other top leaders of the Soviet government and Communist party. A sizeable delegation of foreign diplomats also attended.

Foreign air attaches watched closely during the 75-minute display. They said all the planes participating had been publicly demonstrated in the past.

Withdrawal of Foreign Troops From Korea Is Suggested by Chinese

150 Additional Men Released, But Won't Talk

By LEROY HANSEN

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UP) — Light-browed American prisoners returning to freedom today said they would not talk about prison conditions "until all our guys get out up there."

The 150 Americans were silent and subdued in contrast to the boisterous group which returned Sunday.

Although they would not say anything they felt might endanger their friends who are still under Communist control, they spoke freely of escape attempts and other unusual incidents of their imprisonment.

Most of the Americans repatriated today will be aboard the troop transport Gen. John Pope when it leaves Inchon tomorrow on its two-week voyage to the United States.

The Communists turned over 400 captives today, including 250 South Koreans, and received 2,402 prisoners from the United Nations.

Communist spokesmen said the Reds will release another 400 prisoners Tuesday, including representatives of six nationalities.

In addition to 136 Americans, the Communists will turn over 250 South Koreans, eight Canadians, three Australians, two Netherlands and one Greek.

Monday's exchange lifted the number of Americans repatriated in the 20 days of "Operation Big Switch" to 1,859. The Communists have promised to release 3,333.

One of the prisoners arriving in Freedom Village Monday said he had heard reports that U. N. officers held by the Communists are scheduled to arrive in Kaesong, "pretty soon."

Pfc. Joseph O. Olunbal of New York said reports of the officers' imminent arrival were circulating in the nearby Communist base when his group from Camp No. 6 arrived.

Only a handful of American officers have been repatriated in the 20-day-old operation, and none has held rank higher than Lieutenant colonel.

Highest ranking officer held by the Communists is Major Gen. William F. Dean, commander of the U. S. 24th Division who was captured in July, 1950, in the battle of Taejon.

Repatriated Americans predicted returning officers would expose a vicious black market which peddled precious food while hundreds died of hunger in a prison camp.

"The officers promised that they were going to turn in the men responsible when they got back to freedom," said Sgt. Buford McNamara, of (6492 Lamphier St.) Memphis, Tenn.

"They were plenty mad about it and probably would have stopped it but the Chinese shipped them off to another camp first."

To Release 400 More UN Men; Scoffs Demand

By ROBERT SCHAKN
PANMUNJOM, (Tuesday) (INS) — Red China's Premier Chou En-lai called for early withdrawal of all foreign troops from Korea today as the Communists prepared to release 400 more Allied prisoners at Panmunjom, including 130 Americans.

Chou declared in a speech broadcast by Peiping radio that removal of foreign troops should be the first order of business of the Korean political conference.

He renewed demands that Red China and North Korea be seated in the United Nations assembly to discuss conditions of the conference.

Chou said: "Both the forces of the UN and the Chinese People's Volunteers should withdraw from Korea in accordance with the provisions of article 60 of the armistice agreement."

"After that is done the remaining problems of Korea can be discussed."

Withdrawal of foreign troops also is one of the major demands of President Syngman Rhee of South Korea.

Concerning UN discussions of the political conference, Chou asserted that at the very least "it is the responsibility" of the assembly to notify Red China and North Korea promptly of all decisions taken in connection with the talks.

Chou said Red China wants the conference to be a "round table" talk.

Four Hurt in Escape From Building Fire

LITTLE ROCK — A panic-stricken woman was injured critically when she jumped from the second story of a burning apartment house here yesterday.

Three other persons, including a month-old baby, were hurt less seriously and six persons escaped without injury.

Hospital authorities said Mrs. Lela Gail suffered broken bones and third degree burns over 40 percent of her body.

An 18-year-old mother, her month-old daughter and a department store manager received minor injuries in the fire. The blaze of undetermined origin, was discovered shortly after midnight in the 10th & Louisiana apartment house on the edge of Little Rock's business district.

Ray Kasper, 32, Sears-Roebuck official, said he smelled smoke and ran into the hall to find the front stairs burning. He kicked open the door of Mrs. Myrl Hammock's apartment.

"I woke up Mrs. Hammock. She started screaming, 'My baby, my baby.' I grabbed the baby, Cheryl Lynn, and went out into the hall. The back stairs were burning, too."

"So I went into the room, ripped out the screen and held the baby outside the window away from the smoke as long as I could. Then I dropped to a man standing in the yard below."

"Mrs. Gail was leaning out of a window in an adjoining apartment and holding. I told her not to jump. The firemen will be here in a minute," I yelled. She ignored me and jumped anyway.

Mrs. Gail was found in the alley by policemen and firemen.

Kasper and Mrs. Hammock were rescued by firemen.

Kasper and the infant were treated at Arkansas Hospital and released. Mrs. Hammock's condition was reported good by attendants.

Clark, he told me he was an American, born in California. Two of his brothers were then serving in the American army. He had been impressed into the Japanese army.

"If you ever get home," he said "I wish you'd deliver a message to my family. Tell them I'd like to be with my brothers in the army."

And how did he happen to be in the wrong uniform?
"You come from California," he said. "You remember how it was. I knew what he meant. Those were the days of the 'yellow peril,' the Japanese 'picture brides' and all the weird nonsense about how 'the Japs' were all spies and planning to take over the Los Angeles City Hall any minute now."

What was worse, they used to work in their truck gardens on Saturdays and Sundays. How can you compete with a sinister friend who works on Sunday? It was strictly unfair, dirty pool.

The fact that the Japanese were practically model citizens mattered not at all. A Japanese name seldom, if ever, appeared in the crime news. During the depression, none was on relief rolls. They always were among the first to meet their quotas in the Community Chest and Red Cross drives. Their homes and stores, and the very streets in "Little Tokyo," were spotlessly clean.

That didn't help much in those days. You see, the configuration of their eyes was different from ours.

"Finally, I couldn't take it any more," he said. "Especially in high school, I felt as though I didn't belong. I thought, 'Okay, I'm not an American, there's no use trying to be one.'"

So he left this country, went to Japan, got a job. When the war came, the Japanese army grabbed him. He was especially useful because of his language—and there was nothing he could do about it.

"I'm sorry now," he said. "I guess I was pretty dumb."

Violence Claims Nine in Arkansas

By The Associated Press

Nine persons died violently in Arkansas over the weekend. Traffic accidents accounted for six of the fatalities.

Coroner W. T. Holman said a 23-year-old Winslow, Ark., father fatally wounded himself Saturday night after shooting his uncle in a "family argument."

Sheriff Clarence Rushman identified the dead man as Marvin Lee Skaggs. He said the shooting occurred at the home of the uncle, Arthur Skaggs, near Chester, Ark.

The sheriff said Marvin Skaggs grabbed a gun from his parked car and told his two sons, whom he had driven to his uncle's house: "I'm going to kill him and then kill myself."

The uncle was shot in the arm. Skaggs' body was found lying near the car.

A 18-year-old Malvern boy, Charles W. Bolen, was injured fatally Saturday when he fell from a moving truck near Arkadelphia.

A 21-year-old Almar was killed Saturday and his bride of a few days injured seriously when the car in which they were riding crashed out of control near Ashland, Ark.

Dead is A.C. Gordon Bloomquist of Duluth, Minn. His wife, Marilyn, 18, suffered a fractured leg.

A head-on collision Saturday near West Memphis has claimed its fourth victim, James Deice of St. Louis. The cars collided on Highway 61.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK — Cotton futures were steady today, although the volume of business continued slow as dealers awaited increase movement of the new crop. Higher prices were due to New Orleans buying and trade covering.

CHICAGO — Grains enjoyed a spirited rally on the Board of Trade today, the first sustained advance in a couple of weeks.

Gains in wheat and corn ranged to around 3 cents at one time, while soybeans were ahead nearly 5 cents.

Smaller than expected arrivals of cash wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth brought short covering into the bread cereal. Corn's firmness was traced to a strong cash market and the need for moisture in the fringe area along the main corn belt.

Goes to London to See Queen

NEW YORK — All by himself, a 14-year-old New Jersey boy went to London to see the Queen. He came home today with this appraisal of her majesty: "An ordinary woman."

Ten-year-old Willard Stutzel Jr. of Pennsylvania, N. J., who saved the money for his summer trip from his own earnings, said he once was within 10 feet of Queen Elizabeth and her husband.

"She's just a plain, ordinary woman," he said. "Sort of sort-coked and timid." The Duke of Edinburgh, he added, "was very funny and cracked a joke here and there."

Willard, who'll enter the tenth grade next month in high school, earned money for his trip about $800 during the past year playing the accordion and piano at weddings and resorts.

He also did some performing during his three-and-a-half-month tour of England, Scotland and Ireland, earning an additional $400. He had more than $300 in his pocket when he departed from the liner Italia today.

Judge Barred in Libel Suits

LITTLE ROCK — Circuit Judge C. Floyd Huff was barred this weekend from taking part in a libel case against a Hot Springs publisher.

Arkansas Supreme Court Justice George Rose Smith ruled that Huff can't participate in court proceedings on 16 counts of criminal libel against Curtis Copeland because the judge is a plaintiff in the case.

The Garland Grand Jury charged that Copeland committed criminal libel against Huff and two other persons in his weekly newspaper, the Hot Springs Rundown.

The Associated Press reported erroneously Saturday that Judge Huff couldn't hear the trial, but could conduct pre-trial proceedings.

KILLED IN ACCIDENT

JOHNSON — Tom Starling, 41, of Johnson, was killed late last night when his pickup truck skidded on loose gravel and overturned.

Deputy Sheriff J. T. Wigley said the accident happened near Wilson, about 10 miles north of here. Three other persons in the truck were not hurt seriously.

France Still Plagued by Strikers

By EDWARD M. KORRY

PARIS (UPI) — Non-Communist strikers defied their leaders today and kept the country in a semi-paralysis that threatened the government of Premier Joseph Laniel.

Hundreds of thousands of Socialist and Catholic Union workers in the mines and public utilities, remained idle three days after the leaders had agreed to settle the walkouts that have crippled France for three weeks.

The Communists seized on the dissatisfaction of the Socialists and Catholics to call on labor for an all-out general strike.

The national assembly, steering committee called a meeting to decide whether to recall vacationing deputies for a full-dress emergency debate on Laniel's policies and the situation confronting France.

A confidence vote almost certainly would follow a recall of the deputies and prolonged labor unrest undoubtedly would end the silence of many legislators.

Laniel last Thursday told the Socialists he would consult union leaders before attempting to institute his drastic program.

This concession modified the Socialists and they urged civil servants, under their franchise to return to their posts and thousands of them responded.

But the Communist-run General Workers' Confederation (CGGT), which was not consulted by Laniel, ordered a continuation of the strike in the mines, railways and heavy industries.

Sea Voters to Decide Bond Issue

HOT SPRINGS — Hot Springs voters will decide tomorrow if they want to spend $985,000 to correct a sewage situation which city fathers say could make the resort city a ghost town.

The State Health Department says Hot Springs outmoded sewer system has polluted Lake Hamilton.

ton and Catherine, where millions of dollars in tourist attractions has been invested.

The city is asking voter approval of a $985,000 revenue bond issue at a special election tomorrow. A similar proposal to finance expansion of the sewer system was rejected last year.

Hot Springs will be a ghost town if the bond proposal fails, says Al Guice, president of the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.
